

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Moonlight

Through developing the land, we also developed open space areas and ideas for amenities throughout the site. This area was focused by the developers and municipality to provide housing intertwined with wetlands and a regional park.

To help development of the area, we were also brought in to create marketing materials for future investors to learn about the property. We designed brochures and color illustrations depicting information and specific parcel options that are available at the development.