Outdoor Living, Elevated

This beautiful cottage-style home is situated on a scenic piece of land overlooking the surrounding mountains. The landscape design was thoughtfully created to support social gatherings and outdoor living, with comfortable, open spaces thoughtfully connected throughout the backyard. A spacious patio with ample seating creates an inviting gathering area that flows seamlessly into the pool space. The design also maximizes the available yard, incorporating a unique combination pickleball and basketball court that provides additional opportunities for recreation and entertainment. Plant selections were carefully chosen to create a deer-resistant landscape while maintaining the beauty and character of the property. Each plant was intentionally placed to support a landscape that the homeowner can maintain and care for personally—an important part of fulfilling his passion for creating and enjoying his dream home.

A mountain retreat designed for connection, recreation, and effortless outdoor living.
